

SUNDAY, APRIL 9

It's All Happenin' at the Park

Clean Air Jam—Noon to 4 P.m.

Have fun, and groove to the tunes of the Bad News Blues Band, Round the House and "Studio C" music artists provided by 92.9 The Mountain. It's all happening at Reid Park's DeMeester Outdoor Performance Center. Join in the Commuter Bicycle Rodeo, view the Clean-Fuel Car Auto Show, learn how to plant a tree, get the kids' faces painted, jump in the air-filled obstacle course, and talk to environmental experts. Two-Buck Burgers from Wild Oats Marketplace will take care of the munchies. Free bike valet parking available. More info at www.tucsonaz.gov/caf or call 740-3947.

Sun Tran Ride Free Day

Get moving on Sun Tran at no charge today. Call Sun Tran's Customer Service Center at 792-9222 or visit the web site at www.suntran.com for route information. (TDD: 628-1565 for persons with hearing or speech impairments.)

Bike to the Zoo

Ride your bicycle to the Reid Park Zoo and show your bicycle helmet at the entrance to get free admission and a breakfast bar (while supplies last). Free bike valet parking available from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. while you tour the zoo. Afterwards, ride over to the DeMeester Outdoor Performance Center for the Clean Air Jam. There you'll find food, booths, live music and entertainment.

Blue Skies Contest

Make a pledge to clean the air and you may win a great prize. Fill out a simple contest entry form! Look for entry forms at Clean Air Fair events or request one at 740-3947. The contest runs April 1 through April 30, 2006. Visit www.tucsonaz.gov/caf for the contest entry form and a full listing of prizes.

THURSDAY, APRIL 6

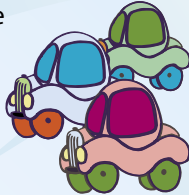

Gas Cap Testing

GOT GAS? Maybe the gas cap on your car is bad. Get a FREE $10 gas cap voucher if your car's cap fails the test. It's quick, painless, and helps keep our air clean. Testing takes place at two locations:

- Pima Community College West Campus, 2202 W. Anklam Rd. from 9 a.m. to noon in the parking lot off the main entrance on Anklam Road, in front of the Tucson Building.
- Pima Community College Desert Vista Campus, 5901 S. Calle Santa Cruz, from 1 to 3 p.m., at the far northwest lot (north of the Pueblo building). Visit www.tucsonaz.gov/caf or call 740-3947 for more information.

"How Sweet It Is" to carPool!

RideShare is rewarding carpoolers April 6 through 30, 2006 with a free dozen Krispy Kreme doughnuts. Sign up for a free carpool matchlist or for RideShare's Guaranteed RideHome program where you'll receive up to four free taxi rides home per year for unexpected emergencies. Register online at www.pagnet.org RS/ or by calling 884-RIDE.

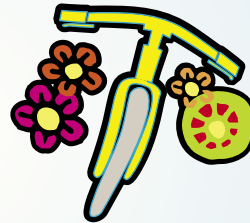

Bike Registration

Bike Registration held at the U of A Mall from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Join KRQ from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. All greater Tucson area residents are welcome! Registering your bike will make it easier to reclaim if it is lost or stolen. Bicycle must be present to register. Get some exercise and fresh air - ride your bike to the U of A Mall to get it registered.

FRIDAY, APRIL 7

Bike to Work Day Fair

Did you know that over 50% of Tucson residents live less than 5 miles from their workplace? While the cooler spring air is still with us, why not hop on your bike and ride to work for fun, fitness, savings, and transportation. Stop in at the Bike to Work Fair at Jacomé Plaza, in front of the Main Library on Stone Avenue, from 7 to 9 a.m. Bike commuters, show your bicycle helmet for a free continental breakfast provided by Wild Oats Marketplace. The fair will feature bike demos, education, contests, prizes, and information on bike commuting in Tucson. Visit www.tucsonaz.gov/caf or call 791-4371 or 792-1093 for more information.

Walk n' Roll to School Day

Hey kids! Walk, skate or ride your bike to school today and do your share for healthy air! It's a great way to exercise and meet other kids in your neighborhood. For more information, please call 740-6941.

Magical History Walking Tour

Meet at the Historic Depot, 400 N. Toole promptly at noon and wear your walking shoes. Historians Ruth Wenberg and James Klein will lead your magical tour of fascinating, little-known historic locations around downtown. You'll be back by 12:45 p.m., in time to enjoy snacks provided by Wild Oats Marketplace.

SATURDAY, APRIL 8

The Alley cat Bike Scavenger Hunt

Can you find these places?-- 44 W. 6th St? Steinfeld Mansion? You'll become more familiar with downtown Tucson when you find all the clues in this scavenger hunt designed by BICAS (Bike Inter-Community Action & Salvage), a bike recycling, advocacy and education cooperative. Questions, maps, and clues will be provided, but you will have to bring your bike. Different courses are offered for families and adults. The ride starts at 9 a.m. and meets at the Historic Depot at 400 N. Toole. Arrive early for a pre-ride snack and plan on about a two hour ride.

Magical History Walking Tour "Family Style"

Meet at the historic Hotel Congress at 9 a.m. with historian Ruth Wenberg to explore those magical and mysterious places in Downtown Tucson and adjacent neighborhoods. This is a family activity not to be missed! Arrive early to enjoy a free continental breakfast courtesy of Hotel Congress. Don't forget to wear walking shoes and bring water!
